Welcome to the new and improved LinkPlas-ter. This quarters issue is a little late but has undergone some fairly dramatic changes, we hope you like it!

LinkPlas have had a great winter and are now having a SPRING CLEAN OUT (See Spring Deals)!

I visited Japan in early September to meet our machinery suppliers, AOKI, it was a great trip. I learned more about AOKI and their world leading

TURNING JAPANESE

After a lengthy flight to Tokyo I was welcomed to Japan with a Train ride, a Bento box and Sake in a cup (Shortly followed by a spot of Karaoke, Brilliant!). The next few days were spent in the AOKI sales conference at the AOKI factory in Nagano. I learned the in's and out's of Direct Heatcon Technology, Preform design and saw some very impressive machines including one that utilises scrap (Flake) PET to produce new bottles.

This was a very memorable and educational experience and I would like to thank Mr Aoki, Ms Yuko Eto and Mr John Picot for the opportunity.

AVOCADO OIL MEETS PET

Introducing Avocado Health as a new LinkPlas customer with a new custom designed bottle. This 250ml Oil bottle, based on the Bordeaux wine bottle shape, is an elegant, strong yet light weight alternative to glass. This bottle contains oxygen scavengers to help preserve the shelf life of the Avocado Oil which is highly sensitive to oxygen.

Excellent for packaging oils or wine. Available for sale through Avocado Health. For more information please visit www.avohealth.com technology and got to enjoy the true Japanese Karaoke experience (After hours of course!)

LinkPlas are excited to announce that we can now “let the cat out of the bag” on a couple of new bottles. These are the Pink Square Delorenzo hair care bottle and the Bordeaux Shaped Avocado Health bottle (Avocado Oil).

Happy Reading ...

DE LORENZO GO PINK

De Lorenzo have always valued distinctive packaging (previously utilising our custom designed Cobalt Blue Conical shaped bottle) and their new custom design is no exception.

The Square 250ml bottles with Natural closures and printed labelling gives a great updated look to the De Lorenzo Essential Treatments Range (Protein Complex, Detangler and Deep Cleanser) . For more information on these products visit <http://www.delorenzo.com.au/essential.htm>

SPRING DEALS

Linkplas still have a range of SPRING CLEAN OUT STOCK available with Cosmetic, Healthcare, Beverage bottles and 38-410 Caps at heavily reduced prices. If you are interested in a brochure please contact Deryn@linkplas.com

NB: The Blue Conical Bottle featured in the LinkPlas Flyer is no longer available.
